One of Toronto, Canada's longest standing drunkcore bands. They've been described at various times as 'Real Street-Punk straight from the gutter', 'A great big nasty musical obscene gesture to just about everybody' and 'Louder than Motorhead, faster than the Ramones, uglier than the Barenaked Ladies.'

Founded in 1989 by singer Mopa Dean and drummer Kyle. Since then the lineup has changed many times, with members going on to play in Varukers, Restarts, Bunchofuckingoofs, Suckerpunch, Masochistic Religion, and others. Released first full length CD called 'It's About Fucking Time' on Obese Records in December of 1997.

Um, maybe we're hardcore, sort of tough to describe, maybe progressive hardcore, some melodic parts, lots of screaming, political/socially conscious message, we're big on egalitarianism (no sexist/racist/homophobic/ xenophobic/etc. bullshit). 2 vegetarians, 2 sXe, 1 anarchist.

PROMOTERS/VENUES

JONAH CAMPBELL

Jonah Campbell, Charlottetown, PE, Canada. 902-892-8738, angrytooth@apexmail.com

I guess I'm just some guy more so than a promoter, I usually use the Arts Guild, this downtown spot, official capacity is 200 people, but we can cram in about 350. I usually do benefit shows, but for away bands we try to guarantee a place to crash, some eats, and some transportation money, depending on how far they've gotta go, it's all worked out beforehand on a case-by-case basis, and none of the prof-its go to me, so I just try to get everybody what they need. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

Original music for the masses! A cross between punk and digital. IntroSpect draws evenly on its influences of both old school punk/Oi and its newer roots in breakbeat/jungle to create an intense, energetic musical base. Drawing upon the band's early peacepunk influences are the sarcastic socio-political lyrics cast into choruses just meant to be sung along with.

A mailorder only source for international punk, hardcore, grind and DJ recordings. We only take the top notch stuff, and I've listened to the acres of mediocre stuff and filtered it out. Fast service, most orders go out within a day or so. Both online and print catalogs are updated weekly, and mailing list available as well. Thanks!

YOUTH IN REVOLT

Sammy Grapejuice, PO Box 5124, Arcata, CA 95521. sammy@speed-racer.com, www.angelfire.com/ca3/revolt/

A zine distro I'm starting. My goal is to distribute thought provoking zines made by unique and rebellious youth. I like personal and political zines best, but I will distribute anything written with passion and energy. I don't have a catalog out yet but I plan to have one out by around October/November. If you write a zine, please send me a copy or email me for more info.

Hi, I have gotten a few responses to my initial posting through e-mail. Unfortunately, when I ask for a sample they never follow through. Just to save you the trouble I'm looking for stuff with a somewhat political slant, zines especially but good music too (not necessarily punk).

Three girls with booking experience, willing to book a tour for your band. If your a band on its first tour, a flat fee will apply (postage, phone calls, time). If you have been on a US tour before, we can work off of a percentage. We do require that you send a promo package and we do listen to everything. The only styles we are currently not booking are: metal, gothic, country, ska, and industrial. We especially like to take on pop punk, hardcore punk, and female fronted bands. Please include in your package the dates and route you need, and we would require at least 3 months advance notice for a full scale tour.

YOU SWEAT ME

Meeshellrock, 1006 West Curie, Santa Ana, CA 92707. 714-979-5303, ihateyoutoo@gurmail.com, www.gurpages.com/zines/ihateyoutoo/open.html

I'm moving up to San Francisco for art school soon. I promote a band from the east bay area (killing independent) full time. If I can help you out I sure will do that... if not I'll point you in the right direction, no problem. I book for 15% of your door cut. When I get my own apt I might be alright with having kids sleep on the floor or whatnot. I deal with mainly emo-mathrockish-spock-hardcore-synth pop-power pop music only. Sorry punk and ska I can't really help you. It's hard for me to book shows with decent bills and draws for punk and ska, or anything else extremely odd. But hey, I guess you have nothing to lose by trying. I don't just work in California I can work the entire west coast. Lodging: maybe. Food: no.

I'll try to find you a place to stay and I'm always fair with money so you'll have enough to buy your own food. Don't fucking call me, and no I don't like your shitty ska or metal band. Send me demos to tape over. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

HIGH LIFE PRODUCTIONS

Aaron, 1229 N. Weber, Colorado Springs, CO 80903. 719-632-5828, atretka@aol.com
I refuse to work with guarantees, simply because the turnout for shows in this town is extremely variable. I will, however, give a hot meal, beer, and a place to sleep to any touring bands in addition to whatever revenue the show makes. I book for the High Life House, a venue with about 50-75 capacity, as well as larger venues at the Colorado College. Other bar/club venues around town are also ripe for the bookin', but I prefer to stay away from these, simply because the bands' cuts are fairly minimal. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

With ppl on both the East and West coast we are establishing a list of bands to promote and help get signed! A really neat place! Recently renovated, was a hot spot in the 50s, and is today again! Features the famous Rockabilly Rebel Weekend, home of the swing dance "Scene" in Indy - and a really neat place to visit, good food too! Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

GELATINOUS PRODUCTIONS

Kathie/Patrick, 4213 E. 62nd St, Indianapolis, IN 46220. 317-290-4327, gelatinousproductions@yahoo.com

Unfortunately, our venue, The Music Box, is now closed. We plan to move to a new location in the near future, and are hoping to have a place for all-ages basement shows soon as well. Will book a variety of DIY bands (prefer indie/pop/surf/emo/garage/experimental).

JDF PRODUCTIONS

Jeff Ferguson, 426 S. Grant St Apt. #8, West Lafayette, IN 47906. 765-743-6842, badbrain12@aol.com
Ok I've been doing this for about 2 or 3 years now. I can do local size shows (less than 100) in my buddies basement (depending on the date) or I have access to bigger venues if need be. I have promoted/organized shows for the likes of Assorted Jelly Beans, Diesel Boy, The Ataris, FYP, 30 Foot Fall, Link 80, Longfellow, Beefcake, Discount, Sarge, The Lillingtons, and know most of the local bands. I rarely do guarantees and please send demos before calling me. No ska bands. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

Mark Quirk, PO Box 20010, Indianapolis, IN 46220. 317-924-5476, leftoutmusic@hotmail.com, www.freeyellow.com/members7/leftoutmusic/

I can get shows at several places here in Indianapolis. I can get all-ages venues, or a bar. The capacity of the all ages clubs are about 100-200 people (depending on which one), and the bar holds about 150. The guarantee is negotiable and I usually take enough to cover my promoting time (about 15%). Hope to hear from all you out of town bands! Punk's not dead! Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

MAYDAY PRODUCTIONS

Troy Nowiczewski, PO Box 1012, Bloomington, IN 47402. 812-330-1210, tnowiczw@indiana.edu
Basement and small club shows. Whatever money is made goes to traveling bands unless it's a benefit. No racism, homophobia, etc.... Open minded, respectful people only! Lodging: yes. Food: maybe.

SKOT DIABLO/DURGE

Skot Diablo, PO Box 139, Claypool, IN 46510. 219-453-1944, crystalmethod@alloymail.com, www.angelfire.com/in/durge/

The halls that we rent out vary in size but most are not too huge. The shows that we do in Warsaw are usually a good turn out. It is a good time the people are supportive. After expenses we divide the money between the bands. Out of town bands get the larger cut. So come on down to Warsaw. There is more than corn in Indiana. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

STEVIE RAY'S

Steve Smith, 506 1/2 N Martin Ave, Muncie, IN 47303. tel/fax: 765-288-2302, srhow@email.msn.com
The only place to play in Muncie, In. right now. The venue is a record store, capacity is 130. I have done guarantee shows but its usually a percentage of the door. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

THE BASEMENT COLLECTIVE

Jonah/Mary, 653 Washington Ave, Terre Haute, IN 47802. 812-234-7286, basementcollective@hotmail.com

We could fit about 100 people in the basement. New Mackie SRM 450's that rock the house. All shows recorded on DAT with a audio Technica DAT mic and a Sony walkman DAT/pictures with a digital camera. Vegan food, good conversation, 60% of door collection to bands and travelers get most of that. Usually bottled water during performance. Weekend dates preferred. Send demos to Basement Collective, PO Box 1745, Terre Haute, IN 47808-1745. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

THE BOARD ROOM

VEGAN SLAUGHTERHOUSE

Steven, Init Records, PO Box 3432, Mankato, MN 56002. steven@init.zzn.com

A year later we started playing grindcore in the vein of A.C., Spazz, and Cattle Decapitation only mixed with a little bit of Earth Crisis maybe? I dunno, we have fun, half of the band is vegetarian/vegan, we're gonna play some more shows and record a CD-R someday and then we're calling it quits. Contact us if you like grind.

Homocore Mpls has been putting on queer friendly DIY shows for since 1995. The venue varies but is usually at District 202, a queer youth center, the Red Eye Theater or various basements. 2 years, 42 shows, 130+ bands, 10 venues. I'm almost burned out on shows, but if you rock or I've done a show for you before get in touch and I'll try to get a show for you at Slackers, our new all ages venue. I've done just about every type of music, bands: U.S.V., Ferd Mert, Fifteen, Strung Out, F.Y.P., I Farm, db's, Animal Chin, the Stereo, Eclectics, VidaBlue, All The Answers, Disembodied, Slow Gherkin, the Thumbs, Dillinger Four, Discount, etc. Weekends preferred during the school year, any night in the summer. Just contact me at least a month or two before the show and send a press kit to. Prefer bands that call opposed to e-mail. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

MADCOW PRODUCTIONS

Phil, Austin, MN 55912. madcow@spyring.com

I can get ya anywhere from 50 cents to a buck a head. I mostly do splits w/ the door. But if you are big I am willing to try a guarantee. Lodging: no. Food: no.

ONE PERCENT RECORDS

Steve, PO Box 141048, Minneapolis, MN 55414-1048. 651-699-6177, oneprcnt@visi.com, www.visi.com/~oneprcnt

I can try and help out with a show here in Minneapolis for hardcore, metal and emo/indie bands. Minneapolis is 6 hours from Chicago and has a good size scene - metal/hardcore and indie bands will do better than straight up hardcore. There are several venues that are options here that I can help set up and promote 50-200 capacity. No guarantees. E-mail and/or send example. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

THE INFERNO

Dedly Daego, 1800 Park Ave #202, Minneapolis, MN 55404. 612-879-8451, maddaego@aol.com, www.humanfith.com

Minneapolis' only current hardcore DIY venue is always happy to try to help out touring bands as much as possible. We are as illegal as the Bombshelter ever was so things are always subject to change and danger. We only do real political punk rock, no bullshit. So if you're down for the count you got a better shot at a gig than if you're a bubble gum bullshitter. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

THE JAVA JOINT

I only book Saturday shows no exceptions. The only stable venue in the state. Touring bands make at least 40 bucks [probably more] no guarantees. I don't like booking agents or rock stars. Punk, hardcore, emo, and some ska. 150 capacity. Built in friendly crowd for almost any band. I book very limited amounts of shows so you are more likely to get one the further in advance you contact. Preferably email before calling. I know most people who book in the state so I'll try to help any way I can. Lodging: yes. Food: maybe.

Brad Vipon/Angela Goozman/Casey Frisch/Worm, 101 Vandeveter Ave, St Louis, MO 63119. 314-961-8351, tonybb@aol.com

Emily Greenwalt finally gits 'er butt out of bed and picks up a guitar, amazing. Song structures based on graphical relations between the blood, sweat, and tears on her punkiest patches (which as u can imagine is dense). The lyrics if I didn't know her seem a bit homophobic, but who else can make her butthole say the phrase "me hungry"? Brilliant bass playing as well.

All information contained within (with the exception of my drunken yammering) is gathered from many many different sources, compiled and formatted for ease of use, and emailed to you. I'm sick and tired of bands who make music only as a means to promote their warped politics and idealistic preaching. What happened to rocknroll? Here it is, and we don't wear big pants or think that punk

David Alan Goldberg, 301 W. 8th St, Apt A-205, Charlotte, NC 28202. kingdag99@hotmail.com, home.talkcity.com/PicassoPI/ozymondias99/

Handmade postcards created by yours truly, an old-school punk who knows. Keeping alive the mail-art/marginalist tradition of Gerry Reith and Ray Johnson. Favorite subjects: human oddities, weird music, weird films, crypto-religious insanity, you get the idea. All you have to do is give me a basic theme and then you will receive a wickedly gorgeous work of art in your mailbox that you will love. Each collage is produced on a sturdy, acid-free surface that will last a lifetime. Please send me your wants and $10 postpaid (money orders only, please - outside of the USA, please pay me with an International Money Order for $12 postpaid in US funds only!). No racists, no sexists, no homophobes, no heterophobes, and no mean people in general. Please keep it clean. The suggestion is more powerful than the act.

Right now all I can trade is the Blue Ash Solution/Tennyson split 7", but more will be available. I am really flexible. I deal mostly with DIY music of any genre (indie/emo/hc/crust/youknowwhatever) but I will consider zines and things like that too. Just email or write me a letter. We can work something out. I would prefer a sample, possible, and no racist, sexist, militant crap please.

PROMOTERS/VENUES

ANDY BAYLIFF

PO Box 891, Dayton, OH 45401-0891. blueash@cheerful.com, www.geocities.com/SoHo/Village/6882/ I can help book shows in the Dayton area. We work with a variety of venues, mostly rental halls and a few house shows. The kids here are nice and enjoy good music. I pretty much deal with every genre (punk/hc/grind/emo, etc) so if you haven't played here before, check it out, and if you have, well, come back! I usually won't do guarantees, so rock stars need not apply. If you think your band is well-known enough to warrant a guarantee, then you'll probably make enough $$$ at the door. If I rent a hall, bands split the door after cost (if I don't break even, I pay the bands as much as I can first). If your show is at a house, the bands split the door. Thanks! Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

DUSTIN

Dustin, Eugene, OR. 541-687-7872, aiacollecive@yahoo.com

I'm just one guy with one guitar. Kinda like Billy Bragg, but radical. I don't like cops, capitalism, or civilization. I do like Citizen Fish, though. E-mail me if you'd like to know what the fuck I am doing. Go vegan.

Why saturate the world with false hope. It's the year 2000 we are damned to hell. If you want a dose of reality that will hit you like a bad case of Whiskey dick. Then call us. If you want a happy unaware pop band then you need to look under the listing Kill Yourself You Stupid Prick! We have a message to spread about how fucked people are but we are down to get fucked up. Gas is the only payment required unless you live within 30 miles of Salem. No racism, sexism, or homophobia...bitch!

FADEOUT

Jonathan Harn, 2075 SW 195, Aloha, OR 97006. 503-909-4454, fadeout00@hotmail.com, fadeout00.tripod.com

If hardcore punk and rap n' roll were to court, get married, copulate and have offspring, the result would be FadeOut. A lovely combination of intricate rhythms, aggressive vocals and guitars and one slap-happy bassist make FadeOut the best thing to come out of Portland since Henry's.

FAR DARRIG

Brian, PO Box 11188, Eugene, OR 97440. 541-463-0831, lockwood2000@hotmail.com

JONNYX AND THE GROADIES

Nathan Backous, 1426 SE Division, Portland, OR 97202. 503-233-8298, groadies@aol.com

100% unrelenting fast victim. Split 7" with Olympia's The Hoodwinks out now, more out soon. Powerthrash, birdy vocals, drum machine blastbeats, feedback, fire. We try to pay homage to metal, not make a mockery of it. Post-hardcore=bad.

KILLING//FOR//CULTURE

AMERICAN NIGHT

Rutteger, Pittsburgh, PA. helmetparty@penis.com, fly.to/mangledhand

For small semi-unknown bands looking to play Pittsburgh, small DIY shows and venues, able to guarantee gas money and maybe more (depending on how many people show up). If you're struggling to get booked in Pittsburgh, we're the way to go. I like to deal with mostly oil and hardcore shows, but other acts are welcome to contact me. Cheers! Lodging: no. Food: maybe.

EASY WAY OUT PRODUCTIONS

John, 702 Herron Ave, Verona, PA 15147. 412-826-0883, feelthefreshness@yahoo.com, fly.to/mangledhand

Run by one guy, the size of the venue depends on the popularity of the band. I deal mainly with the Pittsburgh area. Pittsburgh's a tough scene, so I can't guarantee a show unless you're as popular as the Templars, Ann Beretta, or Inspector 7. Gas money's guaranteed, usually you get a lot more. Usually you hit a killer party after the show. Tons of beer: almost guaranteed. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

FREEFALL UNDERGROUND

Jeremy Myers, PO Box 10296, State College, PA 16805. freefall@jumpstartrecords.com

Mainly do punk, hardcore, and ska. Hall capacity is determined by the size of the band, but we can accommodate anything from 50 to 1000 people. Mainly do shows in the fall and spring because I live in a shitty college town and kids don't come to shows in the summer unless it's a bigger band. I can still do shows in the summer, but you've got to get in touch with me well in advance. I prefer at least 2 months advance time for booking any show, but am willing to work less. I prefer no guarantees! I usually work percentages, but prefer to just give the bands everything from the door after my costs. Lodging: yes. Food: maybe.

Originally an Atari Game, now a pop punk band pushing limits. 3 piece; two brothers and one guy; strong metal roots. Our main concerns are originality, sincerity, melody, energy. People seem to disregard "pop" music. We are struggling to change that. We believe in our strong "metal" upbringing has guided us in the right direction as musicians. Crunching guitars, intricate bass & guitar work, solid drums, insightful lyrics. These are the tools of our trade.

PROMOTERS/VENUES

BRICKS

579 South 200 West, Salt Lake City, UT 84101. 801-328-0255

This is a disco that'll book bands. Capacity is 1000 or more, they do guarantees, but as it's a pretty much gay club, having a pro gay schtick is helpful. Lodging: no. Food: no.

BURTS TIKI LOUNGE

Shannon, 726 South State St, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. 801-521-0572, barndogg@ghostmail.net

Capacity is only maybe 200, guaranteed payment (on terms) but, is very cool bar! They never charge cover, and lots of great bands have played this stage! Have a beer there even if you don't play here! All types of music, especially retro rockabilly surf stuff...place is as likely to get a good audience as anywhere else in Salt Lake. Lodging: no. Food: maybe.

DVS

115 West Temple St, Salt Lake City, UT 84101. 801-539-8400

Huge capacity (1000+?), also have smaller venue in basement (it's a disco, unless someone is playing live). Band takes door (or sometimes guarantee). Lodging: no. Food: maybe.

GETTY'S

Getty, 3737 South State St, South Salt Lake City, UT 84135. 801-269-9796

Bar in Salt Lake, folks who own it aren't punks, but nice folks anyway, they book anyone from metal to emo to acoustic (no blues or country-unless its cool blues or country). They guarantee a payment and there is a certain amount of free beer allotted to the bands. Lodging: no. Food: no.

ICHABOB'S

666 South State St, Salt Lake City, UT 84101. 801-933-5449

Small stage, capacity is large though, (500) percentage of door for bands. Good venue for smaller bands to get a break in Salt Lake. Lodging: no. Food: no.

KILBY COURT GALLERY

Mike Snider, Salt Lake City, UT. 801-942-9513

This is a new venue designed for any bands on the independent level i.e. emo, hardcore, pop, experimental and punk. The venue is small, we can fit about 200 people, all shows are all ages. We give 70% of the door to the bands. We will accept guarantees within reason. A month in advance booking is ideal but not necessary. I can provide a place to stay with a shower and washer and dryer use for free. Please give us a call, Salt Lake has a rapidly growing scene which suits lots of different tastes. "If You Got A Mullet, Sport It". Lodging: yes. Food: maybe.

LIQUID JOE'S

Andy, 1249 East 3300 South, Salt Lake City, UT 84126. 801-467-JOES

All I know about these guys is they book bands, and some of them are punk...good luck. Lodging: no.
Food: no.

YA' BUTS

45 West Broadway (300 South), Salt Lake City, UT 84111. 801-359-1200

Despite the cheesy name, good punk rock venue, capacity is 300, with all cover going to the bands.
Lodging: no. Food: no.

Matt, 28 Pine Place, Glover, VT 05839. burnoutsucks@hotmail.com, www.geocities.com/milo_xxx/main.html

Punk band from northern VT. We have been around for 2 years (as Burnout). We play all kinds of punk (new school, old school, hardcore/punk, punk/ska). Our influences include: Op. Ivy, Millencolin, Fifteen, MTX, early Green Day, FYP, Straight Faced, Strung Out, Bouncing Souls, and Sublime. Right now we are just playing shows but will soon be releasing an album (on our label). We play songs about girls, friends, school, life, religion (we are against it), authority, and things we believe in (peace, unity, anarchy, etc.).
We are just a shitty punk band from the middle of nowhere.

nbpsm@yahoo.com, www.angelfire.com/vt/plague/

A very east-coast hardcore group who is out to give people a show they will remember. Their music is "in-your-face" with strong pick-ups and very hard, hard break-downs. They are a new-school band (but not emo) who's goals are to unite the hardcore scene in their city, by making their music as hard as it gets so people want to come back for more!

PRISONER 13

Jay Usle, 3 Cross St, Barre, VT 05641. 802-479-0656, rollajay13@aol.com, www.angelfire.com/vt/crookedcore/

Been called a mix of hardcore/punk/metal power, but we don't like labels so we named our own style. Crooked Core. Our music is very versatile and bound to hit everyone's mosh gland at some point during our set.

We are strongly influenced by the raw energy and power of punk, the cool image and sound of 60's surf, and the whole ska scene, and a little of everything else in between. We're looking to play shows anywhere they are offered in the northeastern part of the U.S. and possibly Canada. Our first CD with seven songs is available on www.mp3.com.

Ryan, 1041 Dousman St, Green Bay, WI 54303. 920-490-8464, rebelsound@prodigy.net, www.angelfire.com/ns/nightstalkers/

Quite possibly the best rock n' roll band ever from the bowels of the Cheese State. (Note: the preceding opinion was offered by someone who's not in the band-go figure.) Once described as "Jerry Lee Lewis meets Slayer", although we all know that Slayer couldn't hold The Killer's fucking jockstrap in the Evil Department. NS are over-the-top punk rock n roll played by four old metalheads who wanna bring grandiose Satanic mayhem back to punk rock! The only thing we take seriously is rocking out and raising hell so don't fear the reaper, baby, we're your band!!!

Some have said we're 77 style with a touch of hardcore (or maybe it was hardcore with a touch of 77 style I don't remember), while ripping off the Ramones alot. We'll play anywhere, anytime for anything you can give us.

NATE DISGUSTING

2617b N. Pierce St, Milwaukee, WI 53212. 414-263-1185, natedisgusting@hotmail.com

I live in Milwaukee, a city which doesn't always have the greatest number of high-quality punk rock (and otherwise) all-ages shows. I am going to try and change this from the rotten-blackened-insides-out. I'll book your band in one of a few small show spaces here if you're good; as of yet, shows are less common than people who don't care about football, so I have to be picky. I like punk rock. If that term scares you, or you're a ska, emo/crust, or metallic h/c band, sell your instruments and go to tech school. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

NICKZOPHRENICK

Nick, Madison, WI. 608-221-4922, risenfall@hotmail.com

Formed in 1995. Their music can be described as an emotional and moody post-hardcore, somewhere between Neurosis, Kiss It Goodbye, Shotmaker and Today Is the Day. Following several demos, they released their first 7" EP (selfproduced) recorded October 1998 by TVO. The two tracks featured, "vicious" and "fog", are intense, thoughtful and heartfelt at the same time, which seem to be distinctive qualities of the brazen sound. One year later (January 2000) they recorded 5 songs for a 10"...they will look for a label for the CD version.

DUNGPEOPLE

Joe Kidd, 14A Bukit Ceylon, 50200 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. dungboy@rocketmail.com, members.tripod.com/~JoeKidd/index.html

The gigs here are not regular. A few small towns have their own network of people and I'm in contact with them, so I can help. Gigs also only happened on weekends, basically Saturday or/and Sunday held at nightclubs. Payment is not a lot since we work by equal distribution of profit. Lodging is available but not to more than four people. And we can't pay for your flight! If your band is coming around from Japan to Australia or vice-versa, then it'll be nice if you'd stop over in KL. We'll arrange something. Latest: Loads of gigs happening in most major towns all over Malaysia. Can help you in hooking up with the promoters in Kuantan, Seremban, Batu Pahat, Ipoh, Segamat and Johor Bharu. Lodging: maybe. Food: no
